LEADING SERMON-BASED DISCUSSIONS:

- Read the scripture passage(s) together as a group.
- Direct people back to the text if they are going on rabbit trails or talking about opinions and speculation, by asking, "Where do you see that in the text? What answer does the text provide for that question?"
- As you transition to prayer time, pray through the issues and ideas that the text brought up.

ROMANS SERMON SERIES

Our Fall Sermon Series in Romans is highly practical! In Romans 1-11 Paul provides a theological framework for the Christian Faith. Now, in the final section of this letter, he gives the church in Rome specific examples of how this faith should be lived out.

Benefits of this series: It will feel highly practical for all of your group members. Romans 12-16 will force them to reflect on how their faith impacts their everyday life.

Potential pitfalls of this series: It is easy to fall into moralism and legalism when we focus on what we should and should not do if we are Christians. Keep this in mind! The sermon discussion questions will aim to remind us of the gospel truths behind each command.

Observation

Observation (This section is aimed at helping people observe the details of the text: what is written, what words or ideas are repeated and emphasized, the text's structure and how this text fits into the wider context of the book of Romans)

1. Read Romans 12:9-11 together as a group.
2. What are the commands that are in these verses?
3. Verse 9 & 10 describe the characteristics of love, how is this picture of love more comprehensive or different than our picture of love?
4. What two things should accompany serving the Lord?
  - a. What do each of these words mean?
5. Context: Look back to Romans 12:1-8. How do verses 9-11 expand on the idea of living as sacrifices and being a united body?

Interpretation

This section is aimed at linking the current text to other texts or to the bigger biblical narrative. If you are running out of time, feel free to skip this section.

1. Read 1 John 4:7-21. How does this passage help us to better understand the love we are to give others? In what ways is this love first modelled to us from God?
2. Read Revelation 3:14-21. The church in Laodicea is reprimanded for being lukewarm, which is evidence of their lack of zeal. What are the dangers of not being zealous for the Lord?

Application

This section is aimed at helping people apply what we have read in the text to our lives. It is intended to foster more open-ended discussion as people connect the text to their everyday life, and reflect on how it changes the way they think and act.

1. How might this understanding of love impact how you interact with others at church (note: These verses are geared specifically toward how we love each other in the church. In the coming weeks we will talk about how to love people in the world)?
2. How did this text challenge your actions or beliefs about being zealous for God and serving Him?
