- Direct people back to the text if they are going on rabbit trails or talking about opinions and speculation, by asking, "Where do you see that in the text? What answer does the text provide for that question?"
- As you transition to prayer time, pray through the issues and ideas that the text brought up.

ROMANS SERMON SERIES

Our Fall Sermon Series in Romans is highly practical! In Romans 1-11 Paul provides a theological framework for the Christian Faith. Now, in the final section of this letter, he gives the church in Rome specific examples of how this faith should be lived out.

Benefits of this series: It will feel highly practical for all of your group members. Romans 12-16 will force them to reflect on how their faith impacts their everyday life.

Potential pitfalls of this series: It is easy to fall into moralism and legalism when we focus on what we should and should not do if we are Christians. Keep this in mind! The sermon discussion questions will aim to remind us of the gospel truths behind each command.

Observation

This section is aimed at helping people observe the details of the text: what is written, what words or ideas are repeated and emphasized, the text's structure and how this text fits into the wider context of the book of Romans.

1. Read Romans 12:12 together as a group.
2. What are the three things that Paul commands Christians to do?
3. The manner in which we ought to pursue the three things is also given. Which of the three presents is the biggest challenge for you?
4. Re-visit Romans 12:9-11. How does the literary context add to our understanding of Romans 12:12?

Interpretation

This section is aimed at linking the current text to other texts or to the bigger biblical narrative. If you are running out of time, feel free to skip this section.

1. Be joyful in hope.

Paul has addressed this idea before, look back to Romans 5:1-5.

- b. How is hope developed?

2. Be patient in affliction.

Read Romans 8:18-27.

- a. How does this passage describe affliction?
- b. What parts of this passage directly connect to the three things we see in Romans 12:12. Please try and connect every verse in the passage above to one of the 3 parts of Romans 12:12.

- a. What does this passage contribute to our understanding of the purpose (reason for) of prayer?
- b. How can a person be faithful in prayer?

Application

This section is aimed at helping people apply what we have read in the text to our lives. It is intended to foster more open-ended discussion as people connect the text to their everyday life, and reflect on how it changes the way they think and act.

1. What are ways we can encourage ourselves, and each other, to live out the commands of Romans 12:12?
2. How does Romans 12:12 challenge your current responses to circumstances in life?
