SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

EAST ABBOTSFORD CAMPUS

Observation

This section is aimed at helping people observe the details of the text: what is written, what words or ideas are repeated and emphasized, the text's structure and how this text fits into the wider context of the book of Romans.

1. Broader context: The previous story of 1 Kings 18:1 - 19:8 is the story of the Prophet Elijah going up against the prophets of Baal and defeating them.
2. Read 1 Kings 19:9-18.
What is Elijah's primary concern?
3. a) How does God answer that concern?

b) Who are the 3 people He tells Elijah to anoint and what are their roles?
4. Read 1 Kings 19:19-21.
What does the text teach us about Elisha's situation when he is called? (What is Elisha doing when Elijah calls him? What are his priorities?)

Interpretation

This section is aimed at linking the current text to other texts or to the bigger biblical narrative. If you are running out of time, feel free to skip this section.

1. Read 1 Corinthians 1:1-9.
Who is called, and what are they called to?
2. Read Romans 1:1-7.
a) Who is called, and what are they called to?

b) This and the passage above talk about a specific call and a general call, what are the characteristics of each?

Application

This section is aimed at helping people apply what we have read in the text to our lives. It is intended to foster more open-ended discussion as people connect the text to their everyday life, and reflect on how it changes the way they think and act.

1. The previous questions identify the fact that some have a specific call to be a leader in the church, and others have a general call to salvation--to live as redeemed people of God. Share your experience of being called to Salvation. Have you felt any specific calling to ministry or a place of service within God's family?
2. Ephesians 4:1 calls us to "walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you've been called". What does it look like to walk in a manner worthy of your calling in your current life situation? (ie. job, family, leisure, stage of life)
3. When Elisha got this call he sacrificed his oxen, which were his livelihood, in order to follow the specific call that God gave him. How does this convict or challenge you? If God called you to be part of a new initiative that arises out of our multiplication vision how easy would it be to follow? What might it cost? How willing would you be to do whatever it took to follow?
