

2 Corinthians 7:5-16

Lesson 11: The Happy Result of Responding Well

LEARN from the Text

Godly Sorrow is the Key to Reconciliation

Godly Sorrow Provides Comfort (2 Corinthians 7:5-7)

Godly Sorrow Produces Repentance (2 Corinthians 7:8-13a, James 5:19-20)

Godly Sorrow Promotes Confidence (2 Corinthians 7:13b-16)

2 Corinthians 7:5-16

Lesson 11: The Happy Result of Responding Well

LIVE in light of the Text

1. What impacted you most from tonight's discussion, or from tonight's teaching? How did the Holy Spirit use this text to convict, encourage or challenge you?
2. Find the 2 Corinthians Outline that is on page 3 of your workbooks, and glance over the titles for each week of Bible study. What big ideas stick with you as you think back to the passages we have studied and discussed? What has challenged or encouraged you the most this Fall?
3. Talk through page 111 of your workbook, thinking through this week's lesson, and all the lessons that we have studied together so far, and talk through Adoration, Confession, Supplication: What can you praise God for / Confess / Ask for in light of this challenging letter?
4. Pray for one another.... And remember to register if you want to join us again in January!!