

MATTHEW

Lesson 11 | The King Warns and Invites Matthew 11:2-30

He is the expected One – the One who gives rest.

1. John is confused.

2. Jesus confirms.

3. Jesus condemns.

4. Jesus calls.

MATTHEW

Apply to Our Story

1) We all have times of questioning, confusion and even doubt. How has this week's lesson encouraged you? Where in God's Word do you turn to at such times?

2) What does it mean when Jesus says, "Take my yoke upon you..."

3) Are you allowing Jesus to lead and guide you? Are you learning from him? Trusting him? What area in your life can you give to Jesus, instead of striving to do it in your own strength?

4) Take time to pray together:

Adoration - The Lord is faithful, true, gracious, has made Himself known to us, and is gentle and lowly in heart.

Confession - We strive to do his will on our own strength, trusting ourselves instead of Him.

Thanksgiving - Jesus is always with us; He will sustain us, teach us and lead us. He will give us rest.

Supplication - Ask the Lord to help you in the areas that you struggle. Pray for those who are resisting Jesus and that the Father would reveal himself to them.
