Personally Making Disciples: Relational Audit

How many people do you REGULARLY contact or spend time with in the various categories below?

Don't Know!	Other Religions	Nones/ Dones	Open/ Searching	Nominal Christian	New Christian	Growing Christian	Leader of Leaders
Info: These are people who you don't know what category they fit into.	Info: These people identify as a part of another faith system	Info: "Nones" are people who say they have no faith, and "Dones" used to believe but no longer do.	Info: These people are interested in learning more about Christianity	Info: These people say they are Christian, but their lives don't show it.	Info: These are people who have recently come to saving faith in Jesus	Info: These are people who have been believers for years, and are still growing closer to Jesus	Info: These are people who are actively leading and mentoring New and Growing Christians.

- What does this audit communicate to you as you consider Christ's command to make disciples?
 - If you are heavily weighted in the far right columns, are there new places you could / should go, in order to meet non-Christians and perhaps make disciples?
 - If you are heavily weighted in the left columns, can you be more intentional in praying, proclaiming the gospel and living out its implications with people you already know?
