

TESTIMONIES

SUMMER 2024

Baptism not only signifies resurrection to a new life in Christ, but it is also a public commitment to walk in Christ's way.

Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call."

Acts 2:38-39

Welcome to Northview Community Church!

We're so glad that you have joined us for our Baptism service.

What Do We Believe at Northview?

Four words can be used to describe how Christians view the world:

Creation: Our world was created good by God, and people were created in God's image to care for our world and its inhabitants.

Rebellion: People chose instead to rebel (sin) against their creator and consequently experience death, disease and disorder.

Redemption: God set in motion a rescue plan to redeem (regain) people through faith. The Story began with a man named Abraham and climaxed with Jesus (God's son) coming to earth. Jesus lived a perfect sinless life and died to pay the penalty for our rebellion. After three days, God raised Jesus from death, and now offers full and meaningful life now and eternally to those who have faith, (believe that Jesus is the son of God) and who follow Him.

Re-creation: Jesus will one day return to judge the living and the dead and to re-create heaven and earth. Christians live today in faith and hope: following in the footsteps of Jesus as we represent God in the world, and anticipating the day when the world will be re-created: freed from death, disease and disorder.

Why Do We Baptize People at Northview?

Jesus Christ was baptized and He commanded His followers to be baptized. Going under the water symbolizes a person's willingness to identify with Jesus' physical death and die to themselves; recognizing and turning from their rebellion against God. Coming up from the water symbolizes a person's redemption and re-creation. They respond to God in faith, their sin is washed away, their relationship with God is restored, and they live as followers of Jesus now, and eternally.

"Christ" means Anointed One, or King. When Christians say "Jesus Christ", we recognize that Jesus is our King.

BLAKE WIEBE

Baptized By: Derek Wiebe (Dad)

My name is Blake, I am 9 years old. I am in grade 4 and I love hockey.

I am growing up in a Christian home so I have always known God. I accepted Jesus into my heart when I was 5.

I felt God tugging in my heart to get baptized when my brothers got baptized last year. A few months ago we watched the baptism video in church and I felt the Holy Spirit digging in my heart again, and I knew I was ready to get baptized.

I love God and I want to show everybody that I'm giving my life to Jesus!

MITCH KRAHN

Baptized By: Graham Nickel (Friend)

I first learned about God when I was younger while attending Northview regularly with my family. I was always in a place where my faith could grow whether it was at MEI kindergarten through grade 12, at YWAM in Australia for six months or at CBC for a couple of years.

At all points I was learning more about God and who He was. I started to realize I was a sinner in need of Jesus as I got older in my later years of high school as I began to think about it more.

I became a Christian while I was younger; I do not remember the exact time and place but It would have been sometime when I was in elementary school.

Right now I am learning to put all of my faith into Jesus and to trust Him with all areas of my life. I am trying to make more time for Him by being involved at the church whether it is a Bible study or serving as an usher. I want to get baptized because I believe we are commanded to and it is something that I want to publicly declare for those around me to see.

ELISABETH MCGURK

Baptized By: Pastor Edgar Wiens

I have grown up in a Christian home and have gone to Sunday School and church all my life. I first accepted Jesus as my saviour when I was little, praying a prayer as my grandma had said to. However, I began to drift off from my faith around the start of High School. Most of my friends weren't Christian and I began to question God's Truth. Prayer became more of a duty than a relationship, and I felt as though I was living as two different people depending on who I was with.

However, God continued to call me to Himself. During my Grade Ten year, I saw Him in the joy of the people I met while on a mission trip to Mexico. I also had a difficult experience this summer which required me to rely on Him and opened my heart once again to Christianity. I then re-accepted God as my Lord and Saviour at the end of the summer after a week at a Christian summer camp.

During this experience, He truly opened my eyes to my need for His saving grace and removed the weight of my sin. I realized that it was impossible to achieve the perfection that I strove for and that He was the perfection that I needed.

This school year, God has brought supportive people into my life and continued to reveal Himself through His creation. I have also felt that He is changing my heart as He shapes me to become more and more like His Son. I have begun a Bible reading plan to read the Bible in one year and do my best to pray daily. I desire to become better at relying on and recognizing Him in my day-to-day activities. I want to be baptized to declare my commitment to following God for the rest of my life.

ZOE YEOMANS

Baptized By: Alaya Sales (Youth Leader)

I have grown up in a Christian family, and have been attending church, for as long as I can remember. I have always considered myself a Christian and have always been around Christianity whether that was with my friends, family or at school. However, my faith really became my own around seventh grade. During this time, I really started to understand that God has a plan for my life, and that I need to trust Him and prioritize Him. I started going to Northview youth group, and getting to know more people my age that believed the same things I did.

I struggled a bit when writing this, not really knowing what to say. God has helped me in every area in my life whether that is with stresses and anxieties, trusting in Him, or building relationships with people. God has always led me, and I have learned that everything will turn out for good and for His glory. I am grateful for the opportunity to know and love God as I deepen my faith and understanding of Him. I want to continue to follow him and further my relationship with Him.

I know that God is my Savior and that I am a sinful person and getting baptized is a public declaration of my faith. I am extremely excited to take this next step in my faith journey.

HANNAH FROESE

Baptized By: Anita Froese (Mom)

I have grown up in a Christian home and have been learning about God from the beginning of my life. I became a Christian when I was just 3 ½ years old. At bedtime one night I asked my mom how to become a Christian. She explained how to ask Jesus in my heart, and I did a very special prayer with her that night.

I know that God has been with me all of my life. I have learned that I am a very sensitive and emotional person and I feel things deeply. Sometimes this has caused me to feel a lot of anxiety when things in life are difficult. I especially feel God's presence when I listen to worship music and read His Word. I have found Romans 8:38-39 to be very comforting to me. "And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow- not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below- indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ our Lord."

I want to get baptized because I love Jesus and want to follow him all of my life. I have been inspired as I see my family and friends be baptized, and I believe that God has been speaking to me that it is time for me to take this step as well.

DON JOHNSTON

Baptized By: Pastor Jesse Wilson

From a young age I have been surrounded by loving family and friends, some followers of Jesus and some not. As a child I didn't think about it too much, but most of my cherished childhood memories took place at churches and church organized events. I can confidently say my childhood was wonderful. Jesus was always there, watching and guiding me. I just hadn't realized it yet.

Time goes on and life changes. Even though I had so many cherished memories at church and other events, I still found myself lost and on the wrong path. Something was missing, what was it? I couldn't figure it out and my journey into a life of misery and struggle began. I was an adult now, I could do whatever I wanted, whenever I wanted. While true, it didn't mean the things I was doing were fulfilling or made me happy and it took way too long to realise this.

It wasn't until my sons were born that I truly started seeing the repercussions of my actions. My life was easy before, because it was easy to only think about myself, but now I had these two boys who needed their father. I had this loving family, but I was miserable and full of sin.

In a last ditch effort to be happy and turn my life around I turned to Jesus and haven't looked back. I knew I was a sinner and by the grace of God I was invited back through the church doors at 32 years old after having spent over 15 years trying to walk alone. Everyday since I feel blessed and like I have a purpose again. It's been a long time since I woke up excited to take on the day, but here I am.

Being baptized is so important to me. I take my faith seriously now and am ready to take the next step in my journey.

GABE VIG

Baptized By: Pastor Luke Friesen

I first learned about God in grade 3 when I changed schools. Going to a Christian school for the majority of my life allowed me the opportunity to learn about God in my daily life. I am thankful for the people around me that have showed me what a strong belief in Jesus looks like, they have helped me so much along my journey with the Lord.

I had always been one foot in and one foot out about Christianity since being at a Christian school. There were times where I felt close and times where I felt far from God. I realized I was a sinner in need of saving in my grade 11 Bible class. We were reading through Romans and the words just started to make sense it was as if it was a completely different book than I had previously been reading. I could feel that this was the Holy Spirit inside me calling me to Jesus.

As I have since graduated, I am now a university athlete. In this upcoming season of my life I want to be a spiritual leader and help challenge my teammates as well as others around me in their faith. I am learning that vulnerability is important and necessary to help guide others to Christ and that God is using me for His greater plan. I have been learning that Prayer is essential to integrating the Lord into my daily life and has been a growing point of my faith.

Baptism has been on my mind since becoming a follower of Christ but recently I have felt that it is something that I have been pulled to do. I want to be Baptized because I want to publicly declare my faith in Jesus Christ as well as commit myself to a lifelong discipleship of sharing the Gospel to others.

KAYLA BEULENS

Baptized By: Morgan Klassen (Youth Leader)

I first heard about God when I was young from my mom and dad, and I started going to Sunday school and they taught me more. My friends and family have also shown me that I can talk to God. Even if it is the smallest thing, God is always listening, and He cares for me when I am struggling and when I have success.

It was only a few years ago when I first realized that I was a sinner, and that only God my Savior could save me from my sins that I have made. I started by growing up with kids' ministry and saw that I really liked learning about God but then I got old enough to go to the real services and sometimes I had questions and sometimes doubted but just kept learning.

I have been trying to read my Bible every day, but it can get busy so not every day I can. I have always tried to not lie and do what I'm asked but it gets hard sometimes.

One of my teachers said something that I keep thinking about. She said, "we always let God walk with us in our day but what if we walk beside God's day with Him leading us".

I want to get baptized because I want to put my full trust in Christ and know that I can show that I am dedicated to faith that I can live my life knowing I am living it full of Christ.

KYLE MOSEY

Baptized By: Pastor Fredy Orozco

I was born and raised into a Christian home with my mom, dad and 2 younger sisters. I grew up in many different churches attending tons of different classes and services such as youth and kids ministries. But I never felt a tug or felt at home in church, until I came to Northview. I accepted Jesus in Sunday school in grade 4

I still didn't feel that connection that other people my age and older were having. I have always had bad anxiety and constantly worrying that I have not done enough for God. Trying to figure things out alone without God took a toll on me. I always thought that I had to be ready before I got baptized.

I realize I will never be fully ready but I am ready to commit my life to Jesus today and for the rest of my life.

CARLA OLSON

Baptized By: Annika Brown (Youth Leader)

I accepted God into my heart at 10 years old. I have always known about Him because I grew up in a Christian home, yet I never felt like my faith was my own. During a church service last year, I was thinking about how I didn't really know why I was there but since I had to be, I tried to make the most of it. I looked for things I enjoyed about it every week and ended up realizing I loved it because it helped me learn about the Faith I wanted for myself, not for my parents.

This past Easter, reflecting on God's sacrifice and love for me made me realize He truly was the only one who could save me from my sin and is the best example of how to live. Recently I have struggled to help and understand one of my family members dealing with alcoholism. I've been patient, a good listener, and non-judgmental, and God opened my eyes to see that was the best way I could support them. I was so grateful God used me in that situation to show them love and compassion. God loves us far more than that and will never give up on us! I'm trying to grow my relationship with God by making an effort to read the Word daily and pray, especially for wisdom in every circumstance because I know I'll see Him at work more evidently. I also keep in the back of my mind that whenever I don't feel Him working as much is only because of my lack of action, not His. I'm being challenged to implement holy habits and stay devoted to my decision everyday.

I've decided to get baptized today, after wanting to for months, because I feel compelled to show I'm committed to living everyday for Him and this will keep me accountable because I know it really is what I want to do and that God is who I want to follow!

PAIGE OLSON

Baptized By: Taylor Olson (Sister)

“Surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” Matthew 28:20

I was raised knowing who God was, but never had a real relationship with him. When I started going to church, bible study, and youth, I started accepting God into my heart and started building a relationship with Him.

When my friends older brother got baptized, I felt a sudden urge from God to get baptized but never followed through because I was waiting for a major moment to happen. I kept waiting and waiting for a moment or a sign from God that would tell me I needed to get baptized. The sign was the Word of God. 1 Peter 3:21-22 says “Baptism now saves you also-not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a good conscience toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus.”

It took me awhile to realize that I could not save myself from sin, only Jesus could do that. Only Jesus could forgive all of us for our sins repeatedly and still love you through all of it.

Getting baptized is not about the perfect moment or being perfect, it is choosing to repent of my sins and follow my Lord Jesus.

EZRA HAAK

Baptized By: David Haak (Dad)

I am Ezra Haak. I am 14 years old, and enjoy being outside playing basketball, dirt biking, camping, boating, and hunting with my family and friends. I have been fortunate to grow up in a Christian family and I became a Christian when I was young at the age of 8 during the summer with the help and guidance from my Mom & Dad.

I have always believed that Jesus is my Saviour and now as I'm growing up and reading my Bible and praying more God has been showing me more and more each day what it means to follow Him. He has helped me learn more patience and self-control than before and to live my life the way that Jesus would.

I want to be baptized because I am a Christian and love Jesus who died and rose again for my sins. He is everything to me and because He tells us to be baptized I want to be obedient and publicly profess my faith in Jesus Christ who is my Lord Saviour.

LAYLA JANZEN

Baptized By: Madi Byers (Youth Leader)

I first learned about God through Sunday school and my parents. However, it wasn't ever really my focus in life, it was more just something I believed because I was told it. It was like that until grade 8. Yet, even so, it's always been apparent that I sin and that I need God. But it was less of an ask for forgiveness and more of an "oh, it's fine, God forgives."

It was more grade 7 when I really became more conscious of it, and when I realized I needed God more than I knew. I think that for a while now I've really been called to be baptized, but I always just kind of shrugged it off because I was too busy, or too lazy. It took me so long to actually act on it because it wasn't my main focus, and also I chose not to act on it because I didn't think it was super important.

I'm getting baptized because I love God and I want to show and tell others that! Everything I have is because God has blessed me with it, so I want to give myself to him fully. By getting baptized, I am showing that I am truly God's.

COHEN JANZEN

Baptized By: Jalen Krahn (Youth Leader)

I first learned about God from growing up with my family. I remember reading the Jesus Storybook Bible and later the Action Bible with my family before bed. I remember going to Northview kids and being fairly enthusiastic about it.

I've known that I was a sinner for a decent amount of my life, but I never really understood it until the last couple of years. I think the volatile nature of the world was really revealed to me, and at that point, I understood the sin of humanity that is in all of us was a much bigger part of me than I realized. That's when I really understood WHY I needed to be saved. I've always "been" a Christian, but I can't really say when it happened. It's always been a gradual push towards understanding more of my inherent sin and my need for sanctification.

God has been showing me the truth about situations. I had felt like I wasn't good enough to be baptized, which I now realize isn't something to stop me from getting baptized. I am also learning how to properly understand what God wants me to do and what living in obedience looks like. I feel firmer in my faith than I have before. I understand there is still growth that can happen, but I feel more confident in the sanctity of saving grace. I'm being challenged to obey Him in my head with thoughts, ideas, and impulses.

I want to be baptized because if not now, when? If I don't get baptized now, when will I? I should not grow stagnant in waiting to obey this command.

TUZO MUSONGE

Baptized By: Tyler Hiebert (Youth Leader)

I grew up in a strong believing Christian family who taught me about Jesus and how He saved me. I have been part of Northview Kids, learning the basics about Christianity and what it means to follow Christ. I decided to give my life to Christ one weekend after Pastor Bonny finished preaching about Jonah. She was teaching about how we all deserve forgiveness and about God's love for us. Even though I gave my life to Christ, I didn't take my faith seriously and thought that my parents and sister having a strong faith in Christ would be good enough for me.

I think it was because I didn't understand the gospel and felt like the Bible was just a set of rules for people back in those days to follow. I decided to dive deeper into God's word. I joined the worship team and learned how worship gives glory and honour to God's name.

Pastor Dan and my core group leaders helped me take what's in the Bible and apply it to our lives today. Now in high school youth, Pastor Luke is helping me tackle some of the toughest questions in the Bible and giving excellent theology to answer each question. Now I am learning that to be able to follow Christ, I have to have my faith and belief and not rely on others.

I want to be baptized to take the next step in my faith and show my peers that you can't just blindly follow what other people are doing and believing in, you have to do your research and find that you can have your own deeply rooted faith in Christ Jesus.

A verse that has stood out to me this last year is Revelation 16:15 "Look, I will come as unexpectedly as a thief! Blessed are all who are watching for me, who keep their clothing ready so they will not have to walk around naked and ashamed."

Don't wait to become serious about your faith, do it now!

KATHERINE GIBBS

Baptized By: Martin Greindl (Friend)

I'm Katherine, I don't have a conventional Testimony about our Jesus. I don't really have a time in my life that I never believed in Him or have not known Him. He has relentlessly pursued me my entire life, showing me who He is in the darkest moments.

I haven't had the easiest life and I shouldn't even be alive today, and the only explanation as to why I am here is our God and the plans He has for me. "He has a name above all the kings and his name is Jesus", that's a part of a chorus to a song I wrote a while ago.

I definitely live by Jeremiah 29:11. Only He knows the plans He has for me in this life, the ones I think I have are only by His will. I wasn't supposed to be able to have children, but I always hoped and prayed for a beautiful baby girl. God blessed me with her almost 4 years ago. God has blessed me and my life and has relentlessly pursued me.

I am being baptized today to fully declare my love and faith in Jesus, and give Him my life as He gave his life for us.

AYANE NISHIGUCHI

Baptized By: Tammi Hildebrand (Host Mom)

The first time I read the bible by myself, I read "love one another" John 13:5, when I read this scripture, I was not a Christian, but I thought I want to keep these words in mind. The first time I realized that I am a sinner was when I was in Bible class in Japan, the teacher said "everyone has sin" and I thought that was true. I learned that Jesus died on the cross for all of our sins, I felt lighter and I realized that He is the only one who could save me. I believed but, I wasn't sure that I actually wanted to become a Christian because my friends and family in Japan are not Christians. When I first saw the baptisms at church my homestay sister was baptized, I was very moved by the testimonies. The next time I saw a Japanese boy, named Haru, get baptized, his story encouraged me to become a Christian. One day I asked God "If you are real, please show your work and if you want me to be a Christian just talk to me". The next day I went to church and after the service, a lady who was sitting near me, came to me and talked to me. She could speak Japanese and was just visiting Abbotsford for the day. We just met that day and when I said "I don't know if I can be a Christian. I am not ready." She said "please get baptized, by all means." I was like "wow", how could I not believe in God. I know He is real and He talked to me through that lady.

After I heard those words I got confidence to become a Christian. He saved me from my fear and He showed me His amazing work. I definitely need Jesus who has loved me before I was born. I asked Jesus into my heart at school with my International teacher. I'm going to Bible class at ACS for the international students, to learn all I can. My family and Japanese friends are not Christians so I am challenging myself to grow further in my faith in a situation where I believe something different from everyone else.

I am leaving to go home to Japan two days after my baptism and I want to face God with a new life with the Lord Jesus by dying to sin through baptism. I believe in God and I believe in Jesus who died on the cross and rose up again, He is my savior. I am overjoyed with the desire to confess that I am a Christian in front of everyone.

KENZEE MCKIBBON

Baptized By: Morgan Klassen (Youth Leader)

I learned about God and Jesus from my dad, he always talks about Him and is always praying. When I was 8 I decided I wanted to learn about Jesus and I knew I needed Him to guide me with what I was going through at the time. I became a Christian because my dad showed me about Christ.

I am growing closer to Jesus by reading the Bible and listening when people talk about Him. I am being challenged to obey Him and follow His rules.

I am serving Him by turning my life over to Him everyday and serving here at church. Jesus helps me be a better person, like I try to help people and not hurt them. I am learning good values, Scripture and healthy relationship skills. I know He is always with me and I am never alone.

I want to be baptized to show publicly I am a follower of Christ and to show publicly that I am a reborn as a follower of Jesus. He always puts a smile on my face no matter the situation.

ALLAN STEIDLE

Baptized by: Jalen Krahn (Son-in-law)

All life comes from God and Jesus wants to teach us how to live a fulfilled life.

I want to be baptized publicly show I am reborn and want to follow the path of Jesus in a Christian life.

There are so many ways the Bible has helped me and the words of Jesus have brought me comfort. I have slowly learned about God and Jesus from my friends and family and I continue to learn more each day and I want to commit myself to Jesus.

In the last few years I have become more aware of the feeling of well being from living a Christian based life and asking Jesus for the forgiveness of my sins and showing me a path forward. I am learning to have greater faith and be courageous and to not let fear affect my thinking. To trust in the Lord and not lean on my own understanding is the feeling I want to grow within myself and to help others to discover an enlightened life with Jesus.

SHAW HAVINGA

Baptized by: Justin Havinga (Dad)

When I was little I knew Jesus died for my sins. I learned more about Jesus's life and teachings. I realized it was really hard to follow Him. I always felt really bad and undeserving because of my mistakes.

My parents helped me pray and confess my sins to Jesus and He forgave me! I'm learning and want to keep learning that His ways are better than mine. I know that Jesus loves me and I want to give my life to Him.

VIENNA KNIGHT

Baptized by: Tyronne and Meghan Knight

I first learned about God when I was really young. My parents have always been teaching me about the Bible and about God. When I was 6 or 7, I realized that I was a sinner and that we need a Savior to live.

I became a Christian when I was around 6 years old and have continued to learn about God. When I am struggling to obey God, I think and wonder if it is something He would do; then decide if it's something I should do. I'm growing as a Christian by listening to the Bible before bed.

I've wanted to be baptized since I was 7 and I think that it will help me learn new things about God. I really want to be baptized because I want to live a life for Jesus and I want to share that. To show my obedience to God I am being baptized as He asks us too.

LUCY ORR

Baptized by: Pastor Jon Pasiuk

I've grown up in a Christian home with family, friends and church that helped me understand the Bible and what it means for my life. I don't really remember the exact time, I was little. I have always known the truth, from school, church, family, etc. but I feel like in the past few years I have understood more and more. I feel like my understanding has not just grown but also changed perspective. I have learned more about the depth of why Jesus matters. Every day I want to keep my eyes on Jesus and not on the sinful things of this world.

I am growing more and more each day, and working hard to obey what God wants for me in my life. He is giving me courage to persevere and have patience. I believe in Him and love Him and want to keep growing. He is challenging me and I am willing to do the hard things to bring glory to His name.

I want to get baptized because I want to tell the world that I know Jesus and love Him. I want to experience God's full peace and be a follower. I know I am called to make disciples of all nations, and this is the next right step for me. I know I don't deserve to be saved but Jesus's love is canyons wide and oceans deep. I want to be fully tuned with Him, and have Him shining as a light through me. I want the angels in heaven to rejoice, I want to bring joy to my Fathers face. I love Jesus and I believe.
