

EST. NORTHVIEW 1980
COMMUNITY CHURCH

Community Group Guide – Feb 21/22 2026

GATHER + GROW

Deeply rooted by being formed through the word of God.

This biblically based content overlaps with the current weekend teaching at your Northview campus and positions you, as a group, to be shaped by studying Scripture.

- Pray. Acknowledge God's presence + ask for his help to hear what he's saying through the text.
- Share a takeaway from the Feb 21/22 sermon. "Is there something the Holy Spirit highlighted for you?"
- Facilitate a brief study of 1 Cor 16:5-24

Start the conversation with an 'Icebreaker.'

Back when I wrote a lot of physical What was the most memorable or unique letter you have received or written?

Study Step 1: Read 1 Corinthians 16:5-24

Familiarize yourself with this section of verses. (Note characters, commands, key/repeated words!)

Study Step 2: Understand Their Story

Ask observation questions to understand what the author is communicating to the original audience.

- Take a look at 1 Cor 16:5-9
 - Concerning Paul's traveling itinerary, what two reasons affect his staying with them in the near future?
 - Why does Paul not simply want to pass through?

- Take a look at 1 Cor 16:10-18. In speaking about their care for his ministry, Paul mentions others.
 - What do we learn about Timothy in verses 10-11?
 - In light of Apollos' delay, how ought the Corinthians act?
 - The household of Stephanas is interjected into what call given by Paul?
- Take a look at 1 Cor 16:19-23.
 - Paul cannot help but mention so many others who are united in the love of Christ. What does Paul describe as the state of those who have no love for Christ?
- Reflection question: Reflect on who the key Timothy, Apollos, and Stephanas' household were for you? How have you, or could you, learn from and 'be subject to' (1 Cor 16:16) people such as these?
- Take these observations into the next step below.

Study Step 3: Connect To God's Story

Ask questions to understand how this text fits in the larger gospel story.

We've selected a few connections that are here to a) expand on the content of the passage and/or b) clarify the content of the passage.

- Though Paul calls the Corinthians to be subject to 'every fellow worker and laborer' in ministry, this is not a blanket endorsement of all who merely claim to be Christian leaders.
Read 1 Timothy 3:1-14 (cf. Tit 1:5-9) to read about the qualifications of church leaders (elders and deacons).
 - List the qualifications of elders
 - List the qualifications of deacons
 - Bonus: What opposites do you see, or negative examples from false leaders (Titus 1:10-16 pinpoints the ways of those in the culture)?
- For further study on your own:
 - Read Romans 16:1-16. Like 1 Corinthians, Romans emphasize the united nature of Christians as God's family. Count and compare the number of references to people and uses of 'greet ____.'
 - Though it might seem harsh to state that those who do not love Christ are accursed (1 Cor 16:22), this is simply the state of those who do not love God. Compare with John 1:9-13, 3:16-19.

- Reflection: In light of the responsibility of leaders to hold us to account, emphasize the unity and care of Christ's Church, where could you come alongside by caring for the Church this month?

Step 4: Apply To Our Story

Ask questions to discern what God is telling us to do with the help of the Holy Spirit.

- Paul both makes wise plans to link his life with God's will, and trusts God's will with those plans. Where could you be making plans to align your heart and your life actions in accordance with God's will?
- Paul encourages us in this closing to submit to godly leaders for our good growth. Where do you need to submit to God's rightful authority this month/year? Is there a specific area where you need to submit (giving, time set aside for prayer, Bible study, your temper, etc)?
- Just like these leaders, Paul calls all of us to stand firm in the faith, being watchful, in love. Where could you mimic godly leaders by serving Christ's Church this year in a new and/or deeper way? Give a specific action step for you.
(Some examples include: Sign up to be a greeter, coffee server. Set aside time every week to call a fellow believer to encourage them in faith. Take time going out of your way to pick up someone who has mobility or mental health concerns that keep them from getting to the gathering each week).
- Paul spoke about many others doing ministry alongside him. Take time praying for Northview's leaders (elders, pastors, staff, community group leaders), our training of new leaders (MAP, Immerse, missionaries), as well as other churches doing the work of the Gospel.

GO

Deeply rooted by participating in the mission of God.

These culturally relevant applications are meant, with the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, to prompt actions that bring the life of God's kingdom into us and out to others.

-
- Pray for those far from God that you personally know, by name.
 - Is there something that seems especially relevant for us to do personally based on our discussion?
 - Is there something we as a group should plan to do together based on our discussion?
 - Is there something we as a group should plan to do to spend time with someone who doesn't yet follow Jesus? Or to make/strengthen connections with our neighbours?